

ASSURED SHORTHOLD TENANCY AGREEMENT

for letting a residential dwelling

Important Notes for Tenants

- ◆ This tenancy agreement is a legal and binding contract and the Tenant is responsible for payment of the rent for the entire agreed term. The agreement may not be terminated early unless the agreement contains a break clause, or written permission is obtained from the Landlord.
- ◆ Where there is more than one tenant, all obligations, including those for rent and repairs can be enforced against all of the tenants jointly and against each individually. Where the tenancy is subject to deposit protection then joint tenants may have to nominate a lead tenant to act on their behalf with the Landlord or Tenancy Deposit Scheme provider or their alternative dispute resolution service provider.
- ◆ If you are unsure of your obligations under this agreement, then you are advised to take independent legal advice before signing.

General Notes

1. This tenancy agreement is for letting furnished or unfurnished residential accommodation on an assured shorthold tenancy within the provisions of the Housing Act 1988 as amended by Part III of the Housing Act 1996. As such, this is a legal document and should not be used without adequate knowledge of the law of landlord and tenant.
2. Prospective tenants should have an adequate opportunity to read and understand the tenancy agreement before signing in order for this agreement to be fully enforceable.
3. This agreement may be used for residential tenancies of three years or less. Agreements for tenancies of a longer duration should be drawn up by deed.
4. 5. Section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 provides that a notice shall be sufficiently served if sent by registered or recorded delivery post (if the letter is not returned undelivered) to the Tenant at the Property or the last known address of the Tenant or left addressed to the Tenant at the Property.

8. The Landlord agrees with the Tenant that:

- (8.1) The Landlord shall permit the Tenant to have quiet enjoyment of the Property without interruption by the Landlord or his Agent, however this does not preclude the Landlord from taking action through the courts should the Tenant fail to pay the rent due or be in breach of the Tenancy Agreement

- (a) pay the rent (or any part of it) within 14 days of the date on which it is due; or
- (b) comply with the obligations set out in the agreement, then the landlord may re-enter the Property and end the Tenancy.

This right must be exercised in the correct way through the Courts and only the Court can order the Tenant to give up possession of the Property

10. The Landlord agrees to carry out any repairing obligations as required by section 11 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 (see note 4)

11. In this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall have the following meanings:

"The Landlord" includes the persons who during the period of the tenancy have a legal interest in the property

"The Tenant" includes those who might inherit the tenancy. Whenever there is more than one Tenant all covenants and obligations can be enforced against all of the Tenants jointly and against each individually. Joint and several liability means that any one of the members of a party can be held responsible for the full rent and other obligations under the agreement if the other members do not fulfil their obligations

12. The parties agree:

- (12.1) Notice is hereby given that possession might be recovered under Ground 1, Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988 if applicable. That is, that the Landlord used to live in the Property as his or her main home; or intends to occupy the Property as his or her only or main home
- (12.2) The tenancy may be brought to an end if the mortgagee requires possession on default of the borrower under Ground 2, Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988
- (12.3) Before the Landlord can end this tenancy, he shall serve any notice(s) on the Tenant in accordance with the provisions of the Housing Acts. Such notice(s) shall be sufficiently served if served at the last known address of the tenant in accordance with section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 (see note 5)

13. It is agreed that the property has been fully redecorated and that the wheelie bins, gas-fired central heating, recently fitted kitchen, bathroom with electric shower and new carpets on ground floor are the property of the Landlord and will be kept in good and complete repair and condition subject to reasonable wear and tear and will be delivered up in that condition at the end of the tenancy. I/we have received the My Deposits 'Information for Tenants' leaflet, EPC, gas certificate and "How to rent" booklet
