  The incumbrances subject to which the property is sold are:

  (a) those specified in the contract
  (b) those discoverable by inspection of the property before the date of the contract
  (c) those the seller does not and could not reasonably know about
  (d) those, other than mortgages, which the buyer knows about
  (e) entries made before the date of the contract in any public register except those maintained by the Land Registry or its Land Charges Department or by Companies House
- 3.1.3
- maintained by the Land Registry or its Land Charges Department or by Companies House (f) public requirements. After the contract is made, the seller is to give the buyer written details without delay of any new public requirement and of anything in writing which he learns about concerning a matter covered by condition 3.1.2. The buyer is to bear the cost of complying with any outstanding public requirement and is to indemnify the seller against any liability resulting from a public requirement. 3.1.4

Physical state

- 3.2 3.2.1 The buyer accepts the property in the physical state it is in at the date of the contract unless the seller is building or converting it. A leasehold property is sold subject to any subsisting breach of a condition or tenant's obligation relating to the physical state of the property which renders the lease liable to
- torfeiture. A sub-lease is granted subject to any subsisting breach of a condition or tenant's obligation relating to the physical state of the property which renders the seller's own lease liable to 3.2.3 forfeiture.

3.3.1 3.3.2

- Leases affecting the property
  The following provisions apply if any part of the property is sold subject to a lease.
  (a) The seller having provided the buyer with full details of each lease or copies of the documents embodying the lease terms, the buyer is treated as entering into the contract knowing and fully accepting those terms.
  (b) The seller is to inform the buyer without delay it the lease ends or if the seller learns of any application by the tenant in connection with the lease; the seller is to inform the durant duran any approace of the tenant in connection with the rease, the sense is then one act as the buyer reasonably directs, and the buyer is to indemnify him against all consequent loss and expense. Except with the buyer's consent, the seller is not to agree to any proposal to change
  - (c)
  - Except with the buyer's consent, the seller is not to agree to any proposal to change the lease terms nor to take any step to end the lease. The seller is to inform the buyer without delay of any change to the lease terms which may be proposed or agreed. The buyer is to indemnify the seller against all claims arising from the lease after actual completion; this includes claims which are unenforceable against a buyer for want of (d) (e)
  - registration.
     (f) The seller takes no responsibility for what rent is lawfully recoverable, nor for whether or how any legislation affects the lease.
     (g) If the let land is not wholly within the property, the seller may apportion the rent.

TITLE AND TRANSFER

4.1 4 1 1

- 4.1.2
- TITLE AND TRANSFER Proof of title Without cost to the buyer, the seller is to provide the buyer with proof of the title to the property and of his ability to transfer it, or to procure its transfer. Where the property has a registered title the proof is to include official copies of the items referred to in rules 134(1)(a) and (b) and 135(1)(a) of the Land Registration Rules 2003, so far as they are not to be discharged or overridden at or before completion. Where the property has an unregistered title, the proof is to include: (a) an abstract of title or an epitome of title with photocopies of the documents, and (b) production of every document or an abstract, epitome or copy of it with an original marking by a conveyancer either against the original or an examined abstract or an examined copy. 413

4.2 4.2.1

- 4.2.2
- Requisitions

   The buyer may not raise requisitions:

   (a) on any title shown by the seller before the contract was made

   (b) in relation to the matters covered by condition 3.1.2.

   Notwithstanding condition 4.2.1, the buyer may, within six working days of a matter coming to his attention after the contract was made, raise written requisitions on that matter. In that event, steps 3 and 4 in condition 4.3.1 apply.

   On the expiry of the relevant time limit under condition 4.2.2 or condition 4.3.1, the buyer loses his right to raise requisitions or to make observations.

- Timetable

   Subject to condition 4.2 and to the extent that the seller did not take the steps described in condition 4.1.1 before the contract was made, the following are the steps for deducing and investigating the tille to the property to be taken within the following time limits:

   Step
   Image: The seller is to comply with contract was made.

  - The seller is to comply with condition 4.1.1
     The buyer may raise written requisitions
- Six working days after either the date of the contract or the date of delivery of the seller's evidence of title on which the requisitions are raised, whichever is the later Four working days after receiving the requisitions Three working days after receiving the replies The seller is to reply in writing to any
  - requisitions raised The buyer may make written 4.

4. The buyer may make written observations on the seller's replies The time limit on the buyer's right to raise requisitions applies even where the seller supplies incomplete evidence of his title, but the buyer may, within six working days from delivery of any further evidence, raise further requisitions resulting from that evidence. The parties are to take the following steps to prepare and agree the transfer of the property within the following time. 432 within the following time limits:

serier ineed not. prove the exact boundaries of the property prove who owns fences, ditches, hedges or walls separately identify parts of the property with different titles further than he may be able to do from information in his possession.

Rents and rentcharges The fact that a rent or rentcharge, whether payable or receivable by the owner of the property, has been, or will on completion be, informally apportioned is not to be regarded as a defect in title.

Transfer The buyer does not prejudice his right to raise requisitions, or to require replies to any raised, by taking any steps in relation to preparing or agreeing the transfer. Subject to condition 4.6.3, the seller is to transfer the property with full title guarantee.

Time Limit At least twelve working days before

- A. The buyer is to send the seller a A. The buyer is to send the seller a draft transfer
   A. The buyer is to send the seller a draft transfer
   At least twelve working uays before completion date for use as the actual transfer
   C. If the draft is returned the buyer is to send an engrossment to the seller
   Periods of time under conditions 4.3.1 and 4.3.2 may run concurrently.
   If the period between the date of the contract and completion date is less than 15 working days.
   If time limits in conditions 4.2.2, 4.3.1 and 4.3.2 may run served by the same proportion as that period bears to the period of 15 working days. Fractions of a working day one working day.
   If time limits in conditions 4.2.2, 4.3.1

Defining the property The seller need not:

- The transfer is to have effect as if the disposition is expressly made subject to all matters covered by condition 3.1.2 and, if the property is leasehold, is to contain a statement that the covenants set out in section 4 of the Law of Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1994 will not extend to any breach of the tenant's covenants in the lease relating to the 4.6.3 physical state of the property
- physical state of the property. If after completion the seller will remain bound by any obligation affecting the property which was disclosed to the buyer before the contract was made, but the law does not imply any covenant by the buyer to indemnify the seller against liability for future breaches of it: (a) the buyer is to covenant in the transfer to indemnify the seller against liability for any future breach of the obligation and to perform it from then on, and (b) if required by the seller, the buyer is to execute and deliver to the seller on completion a duplicate transfer prepared by the buyer. The seller is to arrange at his expense that, in relation to every document of title which the buyer does not receive on completion, the buyer is to have the benefit of: (a) a written acknowledgement of his right to its production, and (b) a written undertaking for its sale custody (except while it is held by a mortgagee or by someone in a fiduciary capacity). 464

4.7

Membership of company Where the seller is, or is required to be, a member of a company that has an interest in the property or has management responsibilities for the property or the surrounding areas, the seller is, without cost to the buyer, to provide such documents on completion as will enable the buyer to become a member of that company.

- 5.1.1
- 5.1.3
- the buyer to become a member of that company. RISK, INSURANCE AND OCCUPATION PENDING COMPLETION The property is at the risk of the buyer from the date of the contract.

  The seller is under no obligation to the buyer to insure the property unless:
  (a) the contract provides that a policy effected by or for the seller and insuring the property or any part of it is let on terms under which the seller (whether as landlord or as tenant) is obliged to insure against loss or damage.

  If the seller is obliged to insure the property under condition 5.1.2, the seller is to:
  (a) de everything necessary to maintain the policy
  (b) permit the buyer to inspect the policy or evidence of its terms
  (c) if before completion the property suffers loss or damage.

  (i) pay to the buyer on completion the amount of the policy monies which the seller has received, so far as not applied in repairing or reinstating the property, and

  (ii) if no final payment has then been received, assign to the buyer, reasonably requires and pending execution of the assignment hold any policy monies received in trust for the buyer.
- (d) cancel the policy on completion. Where the property is leasehold and the property, or any building containing it, is insured by a reversioner or other third party, the seller is to use reasonable efforts to ensure that the insurance is maintained until completion and if, before completion, the property or building suffers loss or damage the seller is to assign to the buyer on completion, at the buyer's expense, such rights as the seller may have in the policy monies, in such form as the buyer's expense. 514
- buyer's expense, such rights as the selier may have in the policy mones, in such form as the buyer reasonably requires. If payment under a policy effected by or for the buyer is reduced, because the property is covered against loss or damage by an insurance policy effected by or on behalf of the seller, then, unless the seller is obliged to insure the property under condition 5.1.2, the purchase price is to be abated by the amount of that reduction. Section 47 of the Law of Property Act 1925 does not apply. 515 5.1.6

5.2 5.2.1

- Occupation by buyer If the buyer is not already lawfully in the property, and the seller agrees to let him into occupation, the buyer occupies on the following terms. The buyer is a licensee and not a tenant. The terms of the licence are that the buyer: 522
  - (a) (b)
    - (c)
    - cannot transfer it may permit members of his household to occupy the property is to pay or indemnify the seller against all outgoings and other expenses in respect of the property is to pay the seller a fee calculated at the contract rate on a sum equal to the purchase price (less any deposit paid) for the period of the licence is entitled to any rents and profits from any part of the property which he does not occupy (d) (e)
- 523
- 524 5.2.5
- (e) is entitled to any rents and profits from any part of the property which he does not occupy
  (f) is to keep the property in as good a state of repair as it was in when he went into occupation (except for fair wear and tear) and is not to alter it
  (g) if the property is leasehold, is not to do anything which puts the seller in breach of his obligations in the lease, and
  (h) is to quit the property when the licence ends.
  The buyer is not in occupation for the purposes of this condition if he merely exercises rights of access given solely to do work agreed by the seller.
  The buyer's licence ends on the earliest of: completion date, rescission of the contract or when five working days' notice given by one party to the other takes effect.
  If the buyer is in occupation of the property after his licence has come to an end and the contract is subsequently completed he is to pay the seller compensation for his continued occupation for late same takes the mentioned in condition 5.2.2(d).
  The buyer's right to raise requisitions is unaffected. 5.2.6

COMPLETION

- Date 6.1 6.1.1
- Date Completion date is twenty working days after the date of the contract but time is not of the essence of the contract unless a notice to complete has been served. If the money due on completion is received after 2.00pm, completion is to be treated, for the purposes only of conditions 6.3 and 7.2, as taking place on the next working day as a result of the buyer's default. Condition 6.1.2 does not apply and the seller is treated as in default if: (a) the sale is with vacant possession of the property or any part of it and 6.1.2
- 6.1.3
- (a) the sale is with vacant possession of the property or any part of it, and
   (b) the buyer is ready, able and willing to complete but does not pay the money due on completion until after 2.00pm because the seller has not vacated the property or that part by that time

- Arrangements and place The buyer's conveyancer and the seller's conveyancer are to co-operate in agreeing arrangements for completing the contract. Completion is to take place in England and Wales, either at the seller's conveyancer's office or at some other place which the seller reasonably specifies. 6.2 6.2.1 622

Apportionments

Apportionments On evidence of proper payment being made, income and outgoings of the property are to be apportioned between the parties so far as the change of ownership on completion will affect entitlement to receive or liability to pay them. If the whole property is sold with vacant possession or the seller exercises his option in condition 7.2.4, apportionment is to be made with effect from the date of actual completion; otherwise, it is to be made from completion date. 6.3.1

- 6.3.2
- 633 6.3.4
- 6.3.5
- otherwise, it is to be made from completion date. In apportioning any sum, it is to be assumed that the seller owns the property until the end of the day from which apportionment is made and that the sum accrues from day to day at the rate at which it is payable on that day. For the purpose of apportioning income and outgoings, it is to be assumed that they accrue at an equal daily rate throughout the year. When a sum to be apportioned is not known or easily ascertainable at completion, a provisional apportionment is to be made according to the best estimate available. As soon as the amount is known, a final apportionment is to be made and notified to the other party. Any resulting balance is to be paid no more than ten working days later, and if not then paid the balance is to be ari interest at the contract rate from then until payment. Compensation payable under condition 5.2.5 is not to be apportioned. 636

6.4 Amount payable

SCS1

- Amount payable The amount payable by the buyer on completion is the purchase price and the contents price (less any deposit already paid to the seller or his agent) adjusted to take account of: (a) apportionments made under condition 6.3 (b) any compensation to be paid or allowed under condition 7.2 (c) any sum payable under condition 5.1.3.

Title deeds 6.5 6.5.1

As soon as the buyer has complied with all his obligations under this contract on completion the seller must hand over the documents of title. Condition 6.5.1 does not apply to any documents of title relating to land being retained by the celler ofter completion. 652 the seller after completion

66 Bent receipts

6.7

The buyer is to assume that whoever gave any receipt for a payment of rent or service charge which the seller produces was the person or the agent of the person then entitled to that rent or service charge.

Means of payment The buyer is to pay the money due on completion by a direct transfer of cleared funds from an account held in the name of a conveyancer at a clearing bank and, if appropriate, an unconditional release of a deposit held by a stakeholder.

- 6.8 6.8.1
- 6.8.2
- 6.8.3
- Notice to complete At any time after the time applicable under condition 6.1.2 on completion date, a party who is ready, able and willing to complete may give the other a notice to complete. The parties are to complete the contract within ten working days of giving a notice to complete, excluding the day on which the notice is given. For this purpose, time is of the essence of the contract. On receipt of a notice to complete: (a) if the buyer paid no deposit, he is forthwith to pay a deposit of 10 per cent (b) if the buyer paid a deposit of less than 10 per cent, he is forthwith to pay a further deposit equal to the balance of that 10 per cent.

REMEDIES

- REMEDIES
  Errors and omissions
  If any plan or statement in the contract, or in the negotiations leading to it, is or was misleading or inaccurate due to an error or omission by the seller, the remedies available to the buyer are as follows.
  (a) When there is a material difference between the description or value of the property, or of any of the contents included in the contract, as represented and as it is, the buyer is entitled to damages.
  (b) An error or omission only entitles the buyer to rescind the contract:

  (i) where it results from fraud or recklessness, or
  (ii) where he would be obliged, to his prejudice, to accept property differing substantially (in quantity, quality or tenure) from what the error or omission had led him to expect.
- 7.1.2
- substantially (in quantity, quanty of rendre) from what the error of of of sinssion had led him to expect. If either party rescinds the contract: (a) unless the rescission is a result of the buyer's breach of contract the deposit is to be repaid to the buyer with accrued interest (b) the buyer is to return any documents he received from the seller and is to cancel any registration of the contract.

- Late completion If there is default by either or both of the parties in performing their obligations under the contract and completion is delayed, the party whose total period of default is the greater is to pay compensation to the other party. Compensation is calculated at the contract rate on an amount equal to the purchase price, less (where the buyer is the paying party) any deposit paid, for the period by which the paying party's default exceeds that of the receiving party, or, if shorter, the period between completions of the paying party and pays the paying party and the paying party is default exceeds that of the receiving party, or, if shorter, the period between the paying party's default exceeds the paying party and the paying party and the paying party is default exceeds the paying party and the paying party is default exceeds the paying party and the paying party and the paying party is default exceeds the paying party and the paying party and the paying party is default exceeds the paying party and the paying party and the paying party and the paying party is default exceeds the paying party and the paying payi 722
- 723
- paying party's default exceeds that of the receiving party, or, it shorter, the period between completion date and actual completion. Any claim for loss resulting from delayed completion is to be reduced by any compensation paid under this contract. Where the buyer holds the property as tenant of the seller and completion is delayed, the seller may give notice to the buyer, before the date of actual completion, that he intends to take the net income from the property until completion. If he does so, he cannot claim compensation under condition 7.2.1 as well. 721

73

After completion Completion does not cancel liability to perform any outstanding obligation under this contract.

Buyer's failure to comply with notice to complete If the buyer fails to complete in accordance with a notice to complete, the following terms 7.4 7.4.1

- apply. The seller may rescind the contract, and if he does so: 7.4.2
- The seller may rescrind the contract, and if he does so: (a) he may: (i) forfeit and keep any deposit and accrued interest (ii) resell the property and any contents included in the contract (iii) claim damages (b) the buyer is to return any documents he received from the seller and is to cancel any registration of the contract. The seller retains his other rights and remedies. 7.4.3

- Seller's failure to comply with notice to complete If the seller fails to complete in accordance with a notice to complete, the following terms
- 7.5.2
- The buyer may rescind the contract, and if he does so: (a) the doposit is to be repaid to the buyer with accrued interest (b) the buyer is to return any documents he received from the seller and is, at the seller's expense, to cancel any registration of the contract. The buyer retains his other rights and remedies. 7.5.3

LEASEHOLD PROPERTY

- Existing leases The following provisions apply to a sale of leasehold land. The seller having provided the buyer with copies of the documents embodying the lease terms, the buyer is treated as entering into the contract knowing and fully accepting those 8.1.2 terms.

New leases

8.2 8.2.1 8.2.2 The following provisions apply to a contract to grant a new lease.

The conditions apply so that: 'seller' means the proposed landlord

- 'seller' means the proposed lenatdord 'buyer' means the proposed tenant 'purchase price' means the premium to be paid on the grant of a lease. The lease is to be in the form of the draft attached to the contract. If the term of the new lease will exceed seven years, the seller is to deduce a title which will enable the buyer to register the lease at the Land Registry with an absolute title. The seller is to engross the lease and a counterpart of it and is to send the counterpart to the buyer at least five working days before completion date. The buyer is to execute the counterpart and deliver it to the seller on completion. 8.2.3
